Ethos is Everywhere!

Lila Feldmann '20, Iris Hwang '20, Riley Baker '21, and Christine Chen '21 were recognized with national medals in this year's Scholastic Art & Writing Awards competition. Iris was recognized with not one but two gold medals in two separate categories, Poetry and Dramatic Script. "This is a huge accomplishment and our best year ever within this competition for the St. Andrew's creative writing program," said St. Andrew's writer-in-residence Will Torrey. "It's a really big deal to win these awards at the national level."

Heleah Soulati '21 was recently ranked 6th on a list of the top 20 girls lacrosse players in Delaware, as voted on by the state's high school lacrosse coaches. During her sophomore season last spring, Heleah scored a team-high 76 goals (she is seen here after scoring one of those goals), earned Second Team All-State honors for her excellent play, and helped the Saints defeat Smyrna High School in the first round of the DIAA State Tournament. Congrats, Heleah!

It's Asian Heritage Month, and with that in mind, students and faculty of St. Andrew's Asian Affinity Group students made this great video about what they love most about being Asian and what being Asian means to them. Seen below is a screenshot from one of the group's recent Zoom gatherings.
