

Tatnall 23, ST. ANDREW'S 12 —
Tatnall was roughed up by St. E.
35-13, but will avoid the Independent Conference cellar. 2 p.m.

23-12 !!!!!

23-12 !!!!!

Now that's the damndest thing I've ever heard. You realize that this really sets the stage for our game this afternoon. It is obvious that the News-Journal doesn't have the faintest idea of what we are going to do to these guys. So, we're going to surprise both Tatnall and the paper and have a fun time doing it.

Please bear in mind that this will be the last time that we play together and that we should save nothing for a "next game"; gentlemen, this is it. I'll tell you one thing though, a victory couldn't go to a better bunch of guys than the 1985 SAS Football team. So let's prepare for one of the biggest games (if not one of the biggest moments) of our lives. All we have to do is win.

Last week: 16-3. Overall: 132-39-7 (.771). Best pick: Friends 15, Tower Hill 13 (Friends won 7-6). Worst pick: Tatnall 23, St. Andrew's 12 (St. Andrew's crushed Tatnall 30-13 for its first Independent Conference win in five years).

St. Andrew's 30, Tatnall 13
MIDDLETOWN — First for the first time since 1980, St. Andrew's School won the ceremonial cannon with a 30-13 victory over traditional rival Tatnall School in an Independent Conference game.
 St. Andrew's (1-2, 5-3) took the opening kickoff and marched 63 yards on five plays with J.C. Branner (102 yards on 18 carries) capping the drive with a 30-yard touchdown run to set the tempo.

 Tatnall falls to 6-4 and 0-3 in the conference.

Saints finish year with rout of Tatnall

Quarterback Jason Gardner ran for 91 yards and two touchdowns and also picked off two passes on defense to lead St. Andrew's School to a 30-13 season-ending football triumph over Independent Conference rival Tatnall.

The Saints opened the scoring on a 30-yard run by J.C. Branner, who led all rushers with 102 yards on 18 carries. Tatnall, which closed out its season 0-3 in the conference and 6-4 overall, pulled to within 7-6 at the end of the first period on a 10-yard run by Gary Williams.

Gardner answered back with an 8-yard run for the Saints, who finished up 1-2 and 5-3. Then, with only 16 seconds left in the half, Gardner, who completed 3 of 4 passes for 49 yards, threw a 39-yard pass to Branner to set up a 39-yard field goal by Brian Kotz to make the score 17-6 at the half.

Gardner ran 55 yards for a touchdown and Morgan Murray had a 12-yard run to account for the Saints' second-half scoring. Kotz, who kicked the extra point after the Saints' first three touchdowns, missed the first PAT of his career following Murray's TD.

Robert Penn ran 54 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter to account for Tatnall's final score.
