

THE
ST. ANDREW'S
CRISS-CROSS CLUB
PRESENTS

"WE RILEYS"

A COMEDY
IN THREE ACTS

BY

W. H. WHYTE

S.A.S. '35

o
o

8:30 P.M.

FEB. 22, 1941

3/1/41

Repeat performance for British Relief.

DEDICATION

To those much maligned beings of our great American civilization who use chewing gum, read the Sunday Magazine supplements, suffer with Joan Crawford and Tyronne Power, dance the shag, and who don't subscribe to The New Yorker, this play is affectionately dedicated.

WE RILEYS

CHARACTERS

Muff..... Bill Sibert
Pickle..... Joe Littell
Eddie Riley..... Henry Sullivan
Stogie Jackson..... James Crichton
Rose..... Scott Snead
Horace Reagan..... Loudon Wainwright
Angie..... Leigh Cornell
Otis Riley Setherswaite.... Robert Whyte
Mr. Blake..... Samuel Shober
Mr. Schulman..... Noel Austin
Gibby Sellers..... Henry McCorkle
Stretch Bostell..... Sigurd Hersloff

THE SCENES

Act One. Blake's Pharmacy, U.S.A.
Time: The Present.
Act Two. The same, five days later.
Act Three. Scene one, the same but that night.
Scene two, the same but next morning.

PRODUCTION STAFF

Peter B. Nalle..... Stage Manager
James Gibson..... Electrician
James Crichton..... Art Work
Mr. F.R. Hillier..... Director