Need to Know

Parent Virtual Series Continues Sept. 29

Save the date for the September 29 installment of our Parent Virtual Series. Register here for the 7 p.m. ET session, which will discuss how afternoon arts and athletics exercise the mind, body, and spirit.

Student Health to Run Vaccine Clinics

The Health Center will host vaccine clinics on Wednesday, Oct. 15 and Wednesday, Nov. 5. Albertson's Pharmacy will administer the influenza vaccine and the COVID-19 (Pfizer) vaccine. Parents/Guardians: you will receive an email next week indicating whether or not a consent for the influenza vaccine and/or COVID vaccine was submitted with your students' health forms.

If you have any questions, please contact the Health Center at 302-285-4240 or at vaccineclinic@standrews-de.org. If your student will or has already received their flu and/or COVID vaccine(s), please send a copy of their updated vaccine record or provider documentation to vaccineclinic@standrews-de.org.

Finding the Directory in Blackbaud

In the Classroom

Melinda Tower's AS World at War class held a debate on WWI, with alumni of the class giving up a free period to judge current students' arguments.

Gretchen Hurtt's English 1 class discussed the story Randy Travis from the short story collection How to Pronounce Knife by Souvankham Thammavongsa. The lesson helped show students how to notice and interpret symbolic details in a text.

Talk of the T-Dock

Senior Residential Leaders (RLs) facilitate connections on dorm and across campus. Last week, two RLs reflected on following in the footsteps of alumni who impacted their early St. Andrew's experiences.

Elsewhere on campus, mentoring and community-building continues through the Big-Little program.

What have Saints been up to in the weeks between Opening of School and Homecoming? Here's a sampling:

- Students cheered on the football team at a Friday night away game
- Ethos Coffee group members served up caffeine for a cause
- The Cheese Club expanded their knowledge to include cheese-making
- Saints served a meal to neighbors in need in Wilmington, Del.
- Seniors gave younger neighbors a necktie tutorial
- And so much more—check out the gallery!

Go Saints!

Friday, September 12 was the first “spirit bus” game of the fall athletic season. Saints, equipped with megaphones, face paint, and posters to celebrate their favorite football athletes, brought a taste of the SAS community to the home turf of their Wilmington rivals. And on running trails and playing fields, fall sports continue.

Several Saints teams play home games this Saturday—check the Homecoming sports schedule for opportunities to cheer on our athletes!

We Leave You With This!

Foggy skies added to the beauty of campus on a recent Friday morning.
